In-Depth Analysis of Endgames

The book begins by thoroughly examining the world of endgames. You'll gain a deep understanding of the various types of endgames, including:

- Short endgames with few cards remaining
- Medium endgames with around 10-15 cards per player
- Long endgames with numerous cards still in play

Through real-life examples and step-by-step breakdowns, the author illustrates the essential techniques for each endgame type, including:

- Counting and evaluating tricks
- Mastering the art of discarding
- Executing Squeeze plays
- Utilizing end-game finesse

Deciphering the Art of Coups

The book's second part focuses on the captivating world of coups, those daring plays that can turn the tide of a game. You'll explore the different types of coups, such as:

- The coup de grâce, a decisive move that secures victory
- The coup de théâtre, a surprising play that shocks your opponents
- The coup de main, a bold move that seizes control

With expert guidance, you'll learn the strategies behind executing coups, including:

- Identifying the right opportunities
- Timing your coups perfectly
- Countering your opponents' attempts to foil your coups

Interactive Exercises and Practice Hands

To ensure your comprehension and retention, "Endplays and Coups Test Your Bridge Technique" includes a wealth of interactive exercises and practice hands. These exercises allow you to:
