The Soviet Airborne Forces were the elite troops of the Soviet Union. They were formed in 1930 and played a major role in many of the Soviet Union's most important military campaigns, including the Winter War, World War II, and the Soviet–Afghan War.

Osprey's Soviet Airborne Forces 1930–91 is a complete historical overview of these elite troops. This book covers the entire history of the Soviet Airborne Forces, from their early beginnings in the 1930s to their final days in the early 1990s. It is packed with rare photographs, detailed illustrations, and firsthand accounts from veterans.

This book is a must-read for anyone interested in the history of the Soviet Union, military history, or elite troops.
